

#7 Manhunt

(TRICK, 10 pts.)

Wherever I go, he's there, always hiding in the crowd, always sporting that twisted smile, always waiting to strike. Small children can pick him out with no difficulty, but it takes me hours to find him. But oh, no, not today. With your help, this nightmare will end today.

Do not open the envelope yet.

Continue along Powell St. to the Westin Saint Francis Hotel in Union Square (it'll be on your left.) Prepare to BE DISCREET; don't walk together in a tight group waving clipboards around. Enter through the revolving doors and walk through the lobby. You'll pass by some elevators on the right; they're not the ones you want. Continue to go straight – pass under the chandeliers and enter the next room. As you approach the revolving doors, turn right and head toward the concierge, then follow that hallway as it turns left and then right. Summon an elevator and prepare to ride it to the 31st floor; if you're severely acrophobic, you should wait here. Please defer to hotel patrons; there's no need to rush.

Now open the envelope.

WHERE'S WALDO in UNION SQUARE ?

If you can't see Waldo from the elevator, you can always go look for him on foot. If it's raining, Waldo may be holding an umbrella.
